He had been drinking, and stumbled on the track just as the switch-engine was passing, and was struck by the iron step of the engine on the neck, cutting his throat from the front back under his right ear, making a horrible and painful wound, but fortunately not severing the jugular vein. His bead was also fearfully bruised, showing that the engine struck him with great force. He was taken to the stationhouse, where Dr. Erskine dressed the wound and administered to the man's sufferings. At a late hour Ray recovered somewhat from his stupor, and stated that a man with whom he had a difficulty during yesterday followed him up and cut his throat, but says he will not tell who it was. The engineer of the switch-engine says that his engine struck him as we have related above, and immediately on discovering it he stopped his engine and blew an alarm. Ray has a family in Nashville, where he formerly resided. He will be sent to the city hospital this morning.

OFF. BOARD OF POL. AND FIRE COM'S, MEMPHE, April 11, 1876.

o the Honorable General Council: GENTLEMEN-The police and fire ommissioners herewith submit for your consideration a letter of the honorable mayor, of the eighth instant, addressed to them, and their resolution adopted in reference thereto. The commissioners have been laboring under the imprescharter in the general council have been delegated to the board of police and fire ommissioners, in pursuance of section forty-nine of the city charter. If correct in this conclusion the commissioners are of the opinion that his honor, the mayor, is relieved of all responsibility for the management of the police, and that the "numerous complaints" which have been received by him have been misdirected, and should have been ledged with the board of commissioners. Few or no complaints have reached us and we have been flattering ourselves that Memphis, considering the weakness of her police force, is one of the best policed eities in the Union. It is true we have not undertaken a wild, puritanical crusade against all vice, with a foolish and futile hops of exterminating it in all its forms. On the contrary, we have preferred to observe the language of some of the ordinances and of the charter, which empowers us to "regulate or control" certain specified evils. Accordingly we have issued written instructions to the chief of police, which that officer has attended to, in instructing the members of his department regarding drinking-saloons-to keep a watchful eye on all houses to prevent disorder. He has also notified every keeper of houses of ill-fame and gaming-houses not to admit minors, under penalty of arrest, and has taken such steps as will best protect the peace and quietude of the city. Any further legisistion or instructions which your honor-able body may deem advisable is invited by the board of police and fire commissioners. Respectfully submitted, J. T. Leath, Chairman Board of Police and Fire Com. The communication, with the accomappeared in the APPEAL, was received. A resolution by Councilman Glisson, offered in lieu of the above, was laid on the table. A resolution by Councilman Speed that the exclusive management of the police and fire departments devolve

Presentation in the Criminal Court of Resolutions on his Death-Speech by Hon, W. T. Avery,

Hon. W. T. Avery was appointed, at the kar meeting on the occasion of the death of Judge Nicholson, to present the resolutions to the criminal court. It is perceived that he did this in his usual eeling and happy style. Judge Adams responded earnestly, and cheerfully accorded them a place upon his minutes.

Colonel Avery, in presenting them, said: MAY IT PLEASE YOUR HONOR-At'a neeting of the members of the Memphis bar the other day, I was appointed to present to this honorable court the advertised white Linen Lawns at 12 c. esolutions, then adopted, in relation to as they are the greatest bargains of the the death of the lateChief-Justice Nicholson, with a request that they be spread ipon the minutes thereof. Prof. Trice predicts a hurrihe reemed to rise to the full responsibility and mejesty of his great trust, and with unfaltering fidelity and consumate ability moved onward to its perormance. But it was in the fulfilment of this, his last high commission of chief justice of the supreme court of the State that he wore his life away. There no member of the bor who has, since the organization of this court, been before it in either of the three divisions of the State who cannot attest the wonderful labors of this chief-justice who is dead. He fell truly a martyr to labor and to duty, at least to his sense of duty, for I hardly know that duty demands so great a sacrifice as he made for it. Thus has been removed from the judgment-sest below, to the Donovan, Boyle, Speed, Blaise, Doherty, Weller, Otis, Seessel, Karr, Glisson, devotion to duty and his commanding ability, indeed most highly and har-

To the Creditors of the Paducah and Memphis Railroad Company.

The spring term of the United States circuit court will be opened by Judge H. H. Emmons sometime during the latter part of this month. It is understood that a decree of sale will be entered in the case of the trustees, Meyer & Cal-houn vs. Paducah and Memphis railroad company. So it becomes important for such of the creditors of the railroad company as desire to accept the proposition for settlement heretofore made, to signify their intentions at once by signing the articles of adjustment, which are now at the office of Gantt, Patterson & Lowe, 293 Main street.
